

Conference Programme

Thursday, 28.09.2017

09.00 - 9.30 Salutations: Georg Stenger, Karin Preisendanz, Marion Rastelli

KEY FIGURES IN CONTEMPORARY INDIAN PHILOSOPHY (History of Philosophy)

09.30 - 10.00 Adluru Raghuramaraju - Introduction to Contemporary Indian Philosophy

10.00 - 10.45 Marzena Jakubczak - A Comparative Perspective of Hariharānanda Āraṇya (1869 - 1947), a Bengali Philosopher-Monk

10.45 - 11.15 Coffee Break

11.15 - 12.00 Pawel Odyniec: Rethinking Advaita Within the Colonial Predicament: The Confrontative Philosophy of K. C. Bhattacharyya (1875 - 1949)

12.00 - 12.45 Daniel Raveh - That in the martyā which is amṛta: A Dialogue with Ramchandra Gandhi

12.45 - 14.00 Lunch

14.00 - 14.45 Gur Livneh - The Challenge of Comparative Political Philosophy: "The Political" in the philosophies of Sri Aurobindo, Daya Krishna and J. N. Mohanty

14.45 - 15.30 Anna-Pya Sjödin - Conceptualizing Philosophical Tradition: A Reading of Wilhelm Halbfass, Daya Krishna and Jitendranath Mohanty

15.30 - 15.45 Coffee Break

15.45 - 16.30 Dor Miller - Reading Derrida with Daya Krishna

16.30 - 17.15 Adluri Raghuramaraju - Reexamining the Comparative Philosophy Between East and West: Deleuze, Guattari and Gandhi

Friday, 29.09.2017

WHERE IS INDIAN PHILOSOPHY GOING? (Politics of Philosophy)

09.00 - 10.20 Nalini Bhushan and Jay Garfield - Indian Nationalist Thought: Lala Lajpat Rai's Taxonomy and its Contemporary Relevance

10.20 - 11.05 Sharad Deshpande - In the Midst of Contemporary Indian Philosophy

11.05 - 11.30 Coffee Break

11.30 - 12.15 Monika Kirloskar-Steinbach: Postcolonial Representations of Indian Philosophy

12.15 - 13.00 Muzaffar Ali - Indian Philosophy Refunded on Ethics

13.00 - 14.00 Lunch

14.00 - 14.45 Bhagat Oinam - Trends of Philosophising in the Post-Independent India

14.45 - 15.30 Chakravarthi Ram-Prasad: Philosophy and Philology, Past and Future: On the History and Life of Ideas

15.30 - 15.45 Coffee Break

15.45 - 16.30 Elise Coquereau - Politics of Addressing, Problems of Reception: To whom are Anglophone Indian Philosophers Speaking?

16.30 - 17.30 Round Table: How can we trigger more scholars to take advantage of contemporary Indian philosophy?